A BILL

To regulate the duties on Imports, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives 2   of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That,
3   from and after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight 4   hundred and twenty-one, the duties heretofore laid by law 5   on goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into the United 6   States, shall cease and determine; and there shall be levied, 7   and collected, and paid, the several duties hereinafter men-
8   tioned, that is to say:

9       First. A duty of twelve and a half per centum ad valo-
10   rem on all dying drugs, and materials for composing dyes.
11   not subject to other rates of duty; gum arabic, gum senegal,
12   salt-petre, jewelry, gold, silver, and other watches, and parts 13   of watches; gold and silver lace, embroidery, and epaulettes;
14   precious stones, and pearls of all kinds, set or not set, Bristol 15   stones, or paste work, and all articles composed wholly or 16 chiefly of gold, silver, pearl, and precious stones; and laces.

 17 lace veils, lace shawls, or shades, of thread or silk.

18       Second. A duty of twenty per centum ad valorem on 19 gold leaf, and on all articles not free, and not subject to any 20 other rate of duty.

21       Third. A duty of twenty-five per centum ad valorem
 22 on hempen cloth, or sail cloth, (except Russia and Holland 23 duck, and Russia sheeting,) printing types, all articles of brass, 24 copper, iron, steel, pewter, lead, or tin, or of which these me-25 tals, or either of them, is a component material; brass wire, 26 cutlery, pins, needles, buttons, button moulds, buckles, of all 27 kinds, japanned wares of all kinds, cannon, muskets, fire 28 arms, and side arms, and Prussian blue: Provided, That 29 where any person, who has imported copper in sheets or 30 plates, shall, within twelve months after such importation, 31 produce to the collector satisfactory evidence that the same 32 was imported subsequently to the thirtieth day of June, one 33 thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and that the du-34 ties thereon have been paid, and that the same has been 35 actually used in the building or repairing of ships or vessels, 36 there shall be allowed a drawback of the duties herein impos-37 ed, in the manner, and under the same regulations, as are 38 provided for by the existing laws.

39       Fourth. A duty of thirty-three per centum ad valorem
 40 on woollen manufactures of all descriptions, or of which wool

41 is a component material, and on cotton manufactures of all 42 descriptions, (except of the growth or manufacture of any 43 place or country beyond the Cape of Good Hope,) or of which 44 cotton is a component material, and on cotton twist, yarn, or 45 thread, a duty of thirty-three per centum ad valorem; on nan-46 keens, and cotton manufactures of all descriptions, or of 47 which cotton is a component material, the produce or manu-48 facture of, or imported from, any place, or country, beyond the 49 Cape of Good Hope, a duty of forty per centum ad valorem:
 50 Provided, That all cotton cloths, or cloths of which cotton is 51 a component material, the cost of which, at the place whence 52 imported, with the addition of twenty per centum, if import-53 ed from the Cape of Good Hope, or from places beyond it, 54 and of ten per centum if imported from any other place, shall 55 be less than twenty-five cents per square yard, shall, with 56 such addition, be taken and deemed to have cost twenty-five 57 cents per square yard, and shall be charged with duty accord-
 58 ingly: Provided also, That all unbleached and uncolored cot-59 ton twist, yarn, or thread, the original cost of which shall be 60 less than sixty cents per pound, shall be deemed and taken 61 to have cost sixty cents per pound, and shall be charged with 62 duty accordingly; and all bleached or colored yarn, twist, or 63 thread, the original cost of which shall have been less than 64 seventy-five cents per pound, shall be taken and deemed to 65 have cost seventy-five cents per pound, and shall be charged

66 with duty accordingly; a duty of twenty-five per centum ad
 67 valorem, on all manufactures of linen, or of which flax is a 68 component material: Provided, That all linen cloths, or 69 cloths of which linen is a component material, from whatever 70 place, the cost of which, at the place whence imported, 71 with the addition of ten per centum, shall be less than twenty-72 five cents per square yard, shall, with such addition, be taken 73 and deemed to have cost twenty-five cents per square yard, 74 and shall be charged with duty accordingly.

75 Fifth. A duty of forty per centum ad valorem on cloth-
 76 ing ready made; on all bonnets, hats, and caps, of wool, fur, 77 leather, chip, straw, or silk, or of which either is a component
 78 material: Provided, That if the cost of the same at the place 79 whence imported, with the addition of ten per centum, shall 80 be less than one dollar each, they shall be deemed and taken 81 to have cost one dollar each, and shall be charged with duty 82 accordingly; a duty of thirty per centum ad valorem on all 83 manufactures of silk, from any place or country beyond the 84 Cape of Good Hope; a duty of thirty-five per centum ad va-
 85 lorem on painted, stained, or colored paper, or paper hang-

 95 all manufactures of wood; coach lace, carriages of all descrip-96 tions, and all furniture, trimmings, and parts thereof; leather, 97 and all manufactures of leather, or of which leather is a com-
 98 ponent material; saddles, bridles, harness, parchment, brushes, 99 canes, walking sticks, whips, gilt and plated wares, cut glass, 100 china wares, earthen, crockery, and stone wares; marble, ala-
 101 baster, and all work or manufactures thereof. And in all 102 cases, where an ad valorem duty shall be charged, it shall 103 be calculated on the invoice price of the articles at the place 104 whence imported, or on the estimated price, according to the 105 provisions of this act, (exclusive of packages, commissions, 106 and all charges,) with the usual addition established by law, 107 of twenty per centum on all merchandise imported from places 108 beyond the Cape of Good Hope, and of ten per centum on 109 articles imported from all other places, together with the 110 amount of all such bounties, premiums, drawbacks, allow-111 ances, other than a drawback of impost duties, as may be 112 given, paid, or allowed, in the place or country whence im-
 113 ported, produced, or manufactured, or in any place or coun-
 114 try in which any bounty, premium, drawback, or allowance, 115 in the nature thereof, may be given, paid, or allowed, on the

116 exportation of similar articles, which shall be ascertained
 117 and calculated in such manner, and under such rules and re-118 gulations, as shall, from time to time, be prescribed by the 119 Secretary of the Treasury.

1        SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That an addition of 2 ten per centum shall be made to the several rates of duties
 3 above specified and imposed, in respect to all goods, wares,
 4 and merchandise, on the importation of which, in American 5 or foreign vessels, a specific discrimination has not been herein 6 already made, which, after the said thirtieth day of June, one 7 thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, shall be imported in 8 ships or vessels not of the United States: Provided, That 9 this additional duty shall not apply to goods, wares, and mer-10 chandise, imported in ships or vessels not of the United States, entitled by treaty, or by any act or acts of Congress, to be entered in the ports of the United States, on the payment of the same duties as are paid on goods, wares, and merchandise, imported in ships or vessels of the United States.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed a drawback of the duties by this act imposed, on tin, in sheets, which may be manufactured into articles for use, and on brazier's copper, manufactured into sugar kettles, stills, boilers, pipes, or tubes, by, for, or on account of, the person or persons importing the same, upon the exportation thereof within the time, and in the manner, prescribed by the existing laws, so far as the same may be applicable, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury; and, also, on all other goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into the United States, upon the exportation thereof within the time, and in the manner, prescribed by the existing laws, subject to the following provisions, that is to say: that there shall not be an allowance of the drawback of duties in the case of goods imported in foreign vessels from any of the dominions, colonies, or possessions, of any foreign power, to and with which the vessels of the United States are not permitted to go and trade; that there shall not be an allowance of the drawback of duties for the amount of the additional duties by this act imposed on goods imported in vessels not of the United States; that there shall not be an allowance of the drawback in case of 23 foreign dried and pickled fish, and other salted provisions, 24 fish oil, or playing cards; that there shall be deducted and re-25 tained from the amount of the duties on goods exported, with 26 the benefit of drawback, (other than spirits) two and a half per-27 centum; and that there shall be retained in the case of spi-28 rits, exported with the benefit of drawback, two cents per 29 gallon upon the quantity of spirits; and, also, three per centum 30 on the amount of duties payable on the importation thereof:

 31 but, nevertheless, the provisions of this act shall not be deem-32 ed in anywise to impair any rights and privileges which have 33 been, or may be, acquired by any foreign nation, under the 34 laws and treaties of the United States, upon the subject of ex-35 porting goods from the United States, with a benefit of the 36 drawback of the duties payable upon the importation thereof.

1        SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That, after the thir-
 2 tieth day of June next, in all cases of entry of merchandise, 3 for the benefit of drawback, the time of twenty days shall be 4 allowed from the date of the clearance of the ship or vessel in 5 which the same shall be laden for completing the export en-
 6 try and taking the oath, and for giving the exportation bonds 7 for the same: Provided, That the exporter shall, in every 8 other particular, comply with the regulations and formalities
 9 heretofore established for entries of exportation for the bene-10 fit of drawback.

1        SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the duty on the 2 tonnage of vessels, and the bounties, advances, and drawbacks,

3 in the case of exporting pickled fish, of the fisheries of the 4 United States, in the case of American vessels employed in 5 the fisheries, and in the case of exporting sugar refined with-6 in the United States, shall be and continue the same as the 7 existing law provides: Provided always, That this provision 8 shall not be deemed, in anywise, to impair any rights and 9 privileges which have been, or may be, acquired by any fo-
 10 reign nation under the laws and treaties of the United States, 11 relative to the duty of tonnage on vessels.

1        SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the existing laws
 2 shall extend to, and be in force for, the collection of duties
 3 imposed by this act on goods, wares, and merchandise, im-
 4 ported into the United States; and for the recovery, collection, 5 distribution, and remission, of all fines, penalties, and for-6 feitures, and for the allowance of the drawbacks and bounties
 7 by this act authorized, as fully and effectually as if every re-8 gulation, restriction, penalty, forfeiture, provision, clause, 9 matter, and thing, in the existing laws contained, had been 10 inserted in, and re-enacted by, this act. And that all acts, 11 and parts of acts, which are contrary to this act, and no more.
 12 shall be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

1        SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the act, passed
 2 the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fif-
 3 teen, entitled "An act to repeal so much of the several acts 4 imposing duties on the tonnage of ships and vessels, and on 5 goods, wares, and merchandise, imported into the United

6 States, as imposes a discriminating duty on tonnage between 7 foreign vessels and vessels of the United States, and between 8 goods imported into the United States in foreign vessels and 9 vessels of the United States," shall apply, and be in full force, 10 as to the discriminating duties established by this act on the 11 tonnage of foreign vessels, and the goods, wares, and mer-12 chandise, therein imported.

1       SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the same duties, 2 which are by this act imposed on any manufactured articles,
3 shall be levied and collected on articles in part manufactured, 4 and that no goods, wares, or merchandise, which may have 5 been imported, or entered at any custom house in the United 6 States, shall be a second time permitted to be entered at any 7 custom house, or landed at any port or place in the United 8 States, unless the same shall be imported in the same pack-9 ages or bales, and invoiced and valued at the same price and 10 value as on their original importation.

1       SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That all laws, and 2 parts of laws, now in force, which are inconsistent with, or 3 which may be supplied by, the provisions of this act, and no
4 more, be, and the same are, repealed, from and after the thir-
5 tieth day of June next.
